“And whatsoever ye do, do it heartily, as to the Lord, and not unto men.” Col 3:23

Students:

Trinity Christian High will present its Fall/Winter Program on Monday, December 12, beginning at 7:00 pm. The band and both choirs will present a program of various Psalter numbers, Christmas selections, and songs of praise to our Savior. There will be a collection taken for the music department. Join with the students as they sing and play praises to Jesus Christ, Messiah.

Tonight’s music concert will be broadcast on KSOU at 9:00 AM on December 24. KIWA will air the concert at 7:00 PM on Thursday, December 22.

Robotics will host a meet at home on Saturday, December 17—come join us! Competition usually starts around 11:30 AM. We are excited to share our Robot’s skills with all of you!

First semester exams will be next Monday – Wednesday, December 19 and 20 and the morning of December 21.

We at Trinity Christian High School pray that all of our constituency may enjoy a blessed Christmas and the Lord’s continued blessing in the new year. Our last day of the semester will be Wednesday, December 21, with a noon dismissal. Classes will resume on Tuesday, January 3, 2017. The next memo will be on that same Tuesday.

General Announcements:

The teachers enjoyed their annual Christmas supper followed by a time of fellowship and singing last Saturday night.

From the Concessions Committee: Workers are needed yet for this Thursday’s home game—3 for the early shift, and 3 for the late shift! Looking for workers for the concession stand for Saturday, December 17, during the robotics competition. Concession stand will open at 8 AM and go until competition is done. If you could help out for an hour or so, please let Lori or Laura know. Thanks.

From the Apparel Committee: Check out the variety of options from infant – adult, including tall sizes. You can even shop online for your convenience (<http://www.sharonsemb.com/ecommerce/trinity-christian-winter-fanwear.html>). Orders are due online or in the office with payment no later than 10 AM on Wednesday, December 14. Basketball clothing is available also—paper forms available in the office.
